

The Eagle Beheaded: Treason at the Highest Levels

by Jeremy James

President Trump's official 2020 Campaign Cap

We'll get straight to the point: Do you notice anything odd about the official cap – shown above – which Donald Trump has approved for his coming presidential campaign?

Look at the enlargement below of the central portion:

The eagle's head is missing.

Notice too, in the top photo, that the eagle has no claws!

Remember, this is the great symbol of the sovereignty and independence of the United States. The eagle represents her courageous determination, under all circumstances and against all enemies, to defend her freedom and protect her people. The coat of arms on the Great Seal, which is generally recognized as the principal national symbol of the United States, shows this very clearly:

The claws are an integral part of the symbol! One holds an olive branch, indicative of America's desire for peace at all times, while the other holds a set of arrows, indicative of her willingness to use all reasonable force where necessary to defend herself. The eagle's head is facing toward the olive branch to indicate that peace is always the preferred option.

The gender of the eagle is not specified but in popular lore the raptor is male. So, this noble creature, endowed with the claws and beak that he needs to fulfil his mission, is left blind and helpless in the version used on Trump's campaign cap.

The stars on the cap are also troubling. Their traditional orientation has been changed. Instead of standing in an upright posture, they are inverted in the style of the Baphomet pentagram:

If in doubt...

Some readers may wonder whether the Trump campaign is really making use of this insulting parody of the national symbol. Well, see for yourself. Go to

Trump is a Pied Piper

Most Americans are completely unaware that Trump is serving the New World Order agenda. He takes his orders from people behind the scenes and faithfully carries them out. Many of his tweets and seemingly off-hand remarks are carefully scripted. He even pretends to be pro-life but continues to fund Planned Parenthood. The entire Antifa movement could be arrested in the morning, but that will never happen. He boasts of his intention to send in the military to ensure that all Americans get the 'Covid' vaccine shot. Just about everyone on his team is a longtime resident of the swamp he promised to drain. His tax affairs are so corrupt that they cannot be disclosed. His daughter and son-in-law are members of the intensely anti-Christian 'Chabad Lubavitsch' movement, while his own religious affiliation is carefully hidden. He likes to pretend he has some sort of association with Christianity, but this is completely phony. As with all his pals and close associates, his god is the Angel of Light, the Great Architect of Freemasonry, better known as Lucifer. [See our earlier paper #187]

Why do so many Christian ministries, including discernment ministries, continue to portray Trump as a lone good-guy besieged and beset by Deep State villainy? In reality, he is a fake 'conservative', not a real one, a counterfeit to gull and mislead the Christians of America. This is all part of the polarization process which is designed to draw America into a civil war.

The Bible warned us

The Word of God warned of the dangers that face a nation when it is mocked and ridiculed by its enemies. When the king of the Ammonites died, David sent mourners to comfort his son, Hanun, and his family. However, conspirators in the court of Hanun convinced him that David had really sent the mourners to spy on him:

“And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.” (2 Samuel 10:3-5)

The insult was symbolic. No one had been physically harmed but the message was obvious. David even ordered the men concerned to remain at Jericho until their beards had grown back. He did not expect them to enter Jerusalem in a state of disgrace.

Hanun realized the magnitude of what he had done – that he “stank” before David – and spent a vast fortune hiring a great army and 32,000 chariots:

“And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Bethrehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ishtob twelve thousand men.” (2 Samuel 10:6)

“So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.” (1 Chronicles 19:7)

The resulting war was so intense and so closely fought that David himself had to lead the Israelite army in one of several major battles.

Remember, all of this arose from a symbolic act.

Blasphemy

Blasphemy is important among the Illuminati. They want to exalt their own symbols and drag down or mock those of their enemies. The upside down cross is probably the best known example of this. The symbol of Calvary was appropriated and distorted by occult practitioners in order to please their master. This was done by inverting the cross and even 'breaking' the crossbeam to form a "crow's foot" (see below). Where possible it is then reintroduced to the general public as a symbol of something else, something neutral or inoffensive. In this way society is tricked into embracing a symbol whose origin is blasphemous.

Christian	Occult	Occult	International

Symbol of Calvary	Inverted Cross	Witch's Foot [broken cross]	Symbol of Peace

The headless eagle on Trump's 'Freedom Hat' is a deliberate mockery of the original symbol. It is saying, in effect, that America has been decapitated. This message is reinforced by the portrayal of the eagle without his talons. The final touch, of course, is the reorientation of the patriotic stars to make them look like occult pentagrams.

The destruction of patriotic American symbols is a key part of the Marxist strategy to demoralize the population and make them easier to manipulate. We see it with the wholesale desecration of monuments across the United States which represent the values and goals of past generations of patriotic Americans.

The same people want to clip the wings of the Eagle, to slice off his talons and chop off his head. It's an important symbol, rooted deep in the psyche of the American people. The desecration of this symbol would have a strong psychological effect, causing many to believe that the country they once knew no longer exists. This is all part of the conditioning process, whereby the masses, demoralized in ways they don't fully understand, submit meekly to figures in authority whose only goal is to enslave them.

The U.S. Mint

The public service itself is participating in this desecration process. Here is what the US Mint posted on its website on January 13, 2020:

“The United States Mint is giving American Silver Eagle coins a new look... So far as of January 2020, the Mint has not yet revealed the extent of the design changes to the reverses of the Gold and Silver American Eagle series. Given the popularity of the Silver Eagle series – it is widely considered the world's most collected bullion coin by far – these changes are sure to generate shockwaves throughout the numismatic world and are likely to make issues both new and old even more appealing to collectors and stackers alike.”

The US Mint has been making changes to its designs on various bullion coins over the past twenty years or so. Some of these have involved a softening of the Eagle's austere image, but none (as far as we can tell) were disrespectful. However, the candidate designs for the image that will be introduced in 2021 are, in many instances, an entirely different matter. They play around with the symbol of American sovereignty as though it was merely a mascot, with little or no symbolic significance. If any of these are ultimately chosen, then we can well understand why the Mint said “these changes are sure to generate shockwaves...”

We should be concerned that they were even shortlisted for consideration. Here are just a few. We show all 39 candidate designs in Appendix A. Note that #11 and #39 are virtually identical, presumably to bring the overall number of candidates up to 39 (or 3 x 13) – a number much favored by Freemasonry.

Defects in #2: One wing is clipped and an oak branch is used instead of an olive branch. The oak is a well known symbol in paganism.

Olive leaves

Oak leaf

Defects in #3: The predominant feature in #3 is the tree, not the eagle! What is more, it's an oak tree, sacred to the Druids. Also, the topmost eagle is carrying a branch that has no leaves.

Defects in #5: The tree is clearly dead!

Defects in #8: At least a true olive branch is portrayed here, but one of the eagle's wings is no longer visible, and neither are his talons.

Defects in #10: Even though the eagle has an aggressive bearing, both of his wings are clipped and his talons are missing.

Defects in #13: Both of his wings are clipped. Also he is perching on a branch as though his left claw (as we look at the image) is injured. Why are its talons fixed in a closed position?

Defects in #15: This image is devoid of all symbolic power. The 'Mr and Mrs' pose depicts an old, bedraggled eagle who has long retired to the comfort and safety of his nest.

Defects in #20: The presence of a second eagle in any of these images can only weaken its symbolic purpose. The eagle is not representing a natural phenomenon but a political ideal. In this candidate the two eagles even appear to be in conflict!
What on earth is going on?

We have given just 8 examples, but there are many more [See Appendix A]. We must draw attention, however, to #25, which is so incongruous, so utterly inappropriate, that it utterly refutes any claim that the Mint was acting in good faith when it released this list of candidate designs:

Here we see the great symbol of the United States arriving with a worm in its beak to feed three little chicks, presumably his own! We are no longer looking at a national symbol but a satirical cartoon.

CONCLUSION

The Illuminati have made a deep study of symbols and their effects. They regard symbols as repositories of power in an occult sense and as keys to fixing or inducing certain psychological states. This is why they try to infiltrate their own symbols into as many areas of modern life as they can. It is also why they want to destroy or subvert anything that might symbolize goodness and decency. The rainbow is a vivid example of this. They have taken a Biblical sign of God's wonderful mercy and turned it into a symbol of sexual perversion. It even appears on one of Trump's campaign caps – see the 'Pride Hat' shown above.

Every loyal American recognizes and appreciates the symbolic importance of the eagle on the Great Seal and the need to treat it respectfully in all places where it represents nationhood and patriotism. Once a people allow their valued symbols to be defaced or used in a way which mocks their true purpose, that nation is in serious trouble.

Will the organizers of the Trump campaign continue to use this offensive 'Freedom Hat' or will they admit their error – if it is an error! – and withdraw it?

Will the US Mint go ahead with its plans to “generate shockwaves” with its new design, or will it admit that many of its candidate designs are wholly inappropriate and unAmerican?

In light of all that is happening – the 'pandemic' mayhem, the threat of mandatory vaccinations and enforced quarantine, and the approaching economic collapse – the corruption of an important national symbol may seem of minor concern. But when staid and respected institutions are involved – such as the Office of the President and the U.S. Mint – we can detect the stink of treason. And that is definitely a matter of concern.
